THE VETERANS IN SESSION

The Grand Camp of Confederate Veterans at Charlottesville.

Important Resolutions Passed. Washington Taylor, Esq., of Norfolk, Elected Quartermaster-General. The Adjutant-General's Salary Increased.

By Southern Associated Press.

CHARLOTTESVILLE, Va., June 5.—The second and last day's session of the Grand Camp of Confederate Veterans was held today. Col. Smoot presided. The committee on school history recommended that the Grand Camp call on every city and county school board in Virginia to use its influence to select a school history from three Southern histories on the State list, Holmes, Chambers, Shinn's, and also suggested that in private schools the same care be made in selecting histories by Southern authors. In the report was embodied the recommendations of the United Grand Camp at the recent meeting at Houston. The report was adopted.

The committee on school history was increased from five to seven. A resolution was adopted calling for the establishment of an official organ of the camp.

The finance committee recommended that each camp in the Grand Camp pay a per capita of 10 cents instead of 5.

In order to pay the increased expenses on account of the meeting of the United Grand Camp of Veterans.

The committee on resolutions recommended that the commanding general be instructed to notify the Maryland division that this camp could not pledge itself to aid in securing the meeting of the United Camp at Baltimore in 1897. The same committee amidst applause, reported the following:

Resolved, That it is the sense and opinion of the Grand Camp that the action taken by the Advisory Council of the camp, recommending the establishment of a national park at Appomattox Courthouse by the National Government, was inexpedient and inadvisable, and that said action, so far as binding on this Grand Camp, be revoked and rescinded, and that each subordinate camp be left free to express its own opinion on the subject. The resolution was adopted.

The same committee recommended that as soon as the Confederate Veterans secured fifty camps they be allowed a separate Grand Camp.

The following officers were unanimously elected: Wm A Smoot, Alexandria, grand commander; John A. Cozzens, Glen Allen, first lieutenant-commander; J. N. Stubbs, Wood's Cross Roads, second lieutenant-commander; J. M. Garnett, Charlottesville, third lieutenant-commander; T. C. Morton, Stanton, inspector-general; Washington Taylor, Norfolk, quartermaster-general; Rev. Beverly D. Tucker, Norfolk, chaplain-general; Dr. John S. Powell, Occoquan, surgeon-general; Thomas Ellett, Richmond, adjutant-general.

The salary of the adjutant-general was increased to $150 a year.

Winchester was selected as the next place of meeting.

The Inspector General was authorized to settle the differences in the Camp at Berkeley.

The Committee on Resolutions was composed of R. C. Marshall, G. W. Lamary, Gen. Micajah Woods, Col. W. C. Morton, S. R. Poore.

Committee on Finance—Col. W. P. Smith, R. W. Northern, Stith Bolling, W. H. Stewart, A. Herbert.

A resolution was adopted expressing the hearty appreciation of the camp for the offer of Charles Broadway House of $100,000 for the erection of a national memorial hall.

The camp deemed it improper to express an opinion on a matter that had been referred to the Grand Camp of the United Confederate Veterans to one of its committees.

Eleven camps were added last year. The attendance here was three times larger than at any other meeting of the camp.

The Raleigh will be joined by the Cincinnati by that time, both vessels being anchored at the western entrance of the canal.

What is Going On in and Around the Capital City.

An Interesting Check Case. Death of Mr. C. D. M. Cobb, From Consumption of the Brain. Governor O'Ferral and the Pocahontas Matter.

Special Dispatch to The Virginian.

RICHMOND, Va., June 5.—There is no present prospect of the troops being removed from Pocahontas, just as Gov. O'Ferral was preparing to withdraw them by gradually reducing the number of men on duty the situation became more serious and Sheriff Crockett asked that the men be kept on duty. In view of the incendiary remarks by the leaders of the strikers yesterday it is not likely that Gov. O'Ferral will be willing to withdraw any troops at this time. Information from Pocahontas that is officially reliable is to the effect that if the military were withdrawn the strikers would soon stop work in every mine on the Virginia side.

It is the purpose of the friends of silver to organize a State League soon. They claim that every county and every city in the State is overwhelmingly in favor of free coinage. Capt. John A. Curtis is one of the most enthusiastic silver men in Richmond and told me today he thought fully two-thirds of the voters of Richmond were with him. The sound money people are also talking of organizing and they will do so. They say they have Richmond by an overwhelming majority. The political fireworks will soon be started here.

The work of collecting funds for the Davis monument has commenced here. Committees were out today. It is understood that they had fairly good success. Richmond is going to try to raise not less than $10,000. There is already in hand about $12,000. The convention at Houston pledged over $10,000. It is hoped by those in charge of the scheme to raise $10,000. If that sum cannot be had a monument such as can be erected with the funds raised will be put up. As yet the character of the memorial has not been considered.

Mr. C. D. M. Cobb, a well-known real estate agent here, died today at noon from congestion of the brain. He was in apparently good health yesterday morning, but suffered greatly with the heart. After dinner he took a bath and then drove out in his buggy. He was found at about 6 o'clock in a semi-conscious condition in his vehicle and taken home. He never regained consciousness. Mr. Cobb was 42 years old, a native of North Carolina, and a member of the firm of Cobb & Wingfield.

An interesting check case has been arbitrated here. A hotel keeper took it from a traveling man after it had been endorsed by a friend of the drummer's. It was placed in the bank to the credit of the hotel keeper, but when it reached a bank in Florida on which it was drawn the check proved to be fraudulent. The question was who should lose it? Three bankers were the arbitrators, and decided in favor of the bank which they say used proper discretion and diligence in trying to collect the money.

CHARGED WITH CONSPIRACY

More Trouble in South Carolina Over the Dispensary Law.

By Southern Associated Press.

COLUMBIA, S. C., June 5.—This morning another legal move was made in the matter of the dispensary law. State Commissioners Mixson and Liquor Constable Beach were arrested. The proceedings are made under the special conspiracy act of Congress, which was referred to in the Debs case. They were arrested upon a warrant sworn out by two leading citizens, Messrs. Muller and Beck, before United States Commissioner Reidolf Newberry.

They are charged with conspiracy to violate the special Inter-State Commerce act of 1890, in seizing liquor belonging to the complainants. The Commissioner also issued a warrant for the confiscated liquor. The prisoners were taken up for preliminary hearing. Dr. Pope appeared for the complainants and asked that they be bound over for conspiracy.

The Assistant Attorney-General told the Deputy Marshal to consider the seized property in his possession for the purpose of this case.

The State maintains that the defendant's can't be held criminally liable under this act of Congress. The hearing will be continued at 3:30 o'clock. This is an entirely new proceeding.

BASEBALL.

Games Played Yesterday and the Gossip of the Diamond.

Richmond "Shuts Out" Petersburg.

By Southern Associated Press.

PETERSBURG, Va., June 5.—Timely batting with men on bases, aided by Petersburg's poor fielding, gave Richmond to-day's game. In the third inning, after two men had been retired, Pender's error gave Kain his life at first. Singles by Tannehill and Gibson and home runs by Wells and Houseman netted the visitors five runs. Flynn pitched a perfect game and had the heavy hitting Petersburgers at his mercy. His support was gilt-edged. Barring the third inning, Dinkle pitched a good game. The features of the game was the brilliant fielding of Lyons, Mettewen and Breen and the heavy batting of Wells, Houseman and Tannehill. Score:

A Few High Fly's and Grounders.

Brandt is, without doubt, one of the very best pitchers in the State League. Yet he seems fated to lose his game. A pitcher can't win by himself. It takes good support, and if the Portsmouth team had even done their usual amount of hitting yesterday, Brandt would have been the winning pitcher. Mitchell is undoubtedly a good umpire, but what he did for Brandt yesterday was far away from his usual good judgement of balls and strikes.

Yesterday Quinn was on first base. Reed missed a third strike at the ball which went through Catcher Clark's legs. Yet Mr. Mitchell did not declare Reed out, but let him run the bases. How is that, Mr. Umpire? Don't the rules say that when first base is occupied that the third strike is out, caught or not.

The new men spoken of as having been signed by Roanoke did not materialize yesterday, promises to the contrary notwithstanding.

The "Truckers" leave for Richmond this morning on the early Norfolk and Western train.

It is rumored that Mr. O'Neill has lines out for Dodge, Thornton, and Gillman. "Gee whizz," what a team Norfolk will have if the deal between "Ted" Sullivan and Mr. O'Neill is consummated.

With Corcoran, Thornton, McGann and Gillman Norfolk will have a stone wall infield, and with Kelly, Hager and Colthover to take care of the suburbs there will be no reason for further fear. Their march to a respectable percentage will be rapid.

Harry O'Hagan is in Washington. He is free to sign with any club.

Manager McClosky, of the Louisville "Colonels," is not having such a pleasant time. It is hinted that his management of the Louisville has not been satisfactory to the owners of the club, and that he may at any date be succeeded by some one who the directors think can make the club climb up in a better position.

Norfolk's new pitcher, Chard, was in the box yesterday at Lynchburg, but inclement weather prevented the game from being finished.

THE ILLINOIS CONVENTION

A Preponderance of Free Silver and Anti-Cleveland Men.

On the Committee on Resolutions Gen. Palmer's District Not in Favor of Condemning the Administration. Plain Talk Indulged In.

By Southern Associated Press.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., June 5.—Had it not been for the timely action of Secretary of State W. B. Hurler, who issued the call for to-day's Illinois Democratic Silver Convention, the event would have ended in a row. It all came about because of a plank in the resolutions endorsing Governor Altgeld. It had been expressly agreed before the convention was called to order that there was to be no action taken outside of that for which the call provided—the placing of the seal of approval on free coinage and the election of delegates to a national convention to be held some time in the near future.

The trouble began in the committee room, where the platform was being prepared. Ten members of the committee voted for the Altgeld plank and nine against inserting it. The plank was put in. The platform had been read by ex-Congressman Fithian, chairman of the resolutions committee, a firm friend of the Altgeld plank.

A storm of protests had arisen all over the hall, and it looked as if the peace-making silver convention of the West would end in a schism which would be fatal to the future of the white metal. At this juncture Hurler arose and waved his hand, and instantly the uproar was hushed.

"Gentlemen," he said, "I have a personal request to make of you. I don't believe there is anybody in this hall who has any more right to make such a request than I have. It is this: That the part of the resolutions endorsing Gov. Altgeld be stricken out, and for this I ask unanimous consent. The members of the State administration did not expect to be endorsed by this convention either as individuals or as a whole. If such endorsements were made the object of this convention would be nullified."

Judge McConnell, permanent chairman, joined his request to that of Mr. Hurler and Chairman Fithian without even waiting for the convention to ratify the request, read the resolution over, leaving out the objectionable paragraph.

When Chairman Crawford had finished his speech this morning a delegate from one of the country towns started the movement to keep all the abuse of Cleveland or praise of Altgeld out of the convention by introducing a resolution that all resolutions of a political nature, offered to the convention, be received and referred to the Committee on Resolutions without being read.

Thomas Merritt, of Marion county, was on his feet in an instant and strenuously objected to having what he called the gag law applied to the convention. He wanted any resolutions introduced to be duly read.

It was evident there was going to be a hot fight by the enemies of the administration to get in their attacks. The original introducer of the motion withdrew and the point remained unsettled.

The convention then adjourned until 2 o'clock to allow the committee to prepare their reports.

The make up of the committee on resolutions shows an overwhelming preponderance of free silver and anti-Cleveland men.

Not content with the regular selection of this committee a motion was offered to add ex-Congressman Hunter to the committee. This was carried by acclamation. Hunter is a violent anti-Cleveland man and has been berating the President as a traitor to his party.

Despite the assurance given out by the leader's last night, that the convention would not undertake to condemn the National Administration, some of the friends of Mr. Cleveland seemed apprehensive of coming trouble. The delegates from the various Congressional Districts met at 10 o'clock to select delegates to the proposed National Convention on the currency question.

In some of these caucuses the subject of denouncing Cleveland and Palmer was talked over in an informal way, but the sentiment appeared to be against that which was not conservative.

In the case of the Seventeenth Congressional District, Gen. Palmer's home, a resolution was offered instructing the chairman of the delegation and the district member of the committee on resolutions to vote against any proposition to either condemn the administration or endorse the State administration.

Several speeches were made on the subject and the general expression, while strongly against Cleveland, was that it would be bad policy for the convention to take any action which would widen the breach between the two factions of the Democracy.

Timothy T. Beach voiced this sentiment in a peppy speech, in which he spoke bitterly of Cleveland as a traitor to the Democracy, but said he did not think it the business of a monetary convention to denounce him.

The convention reassembled at 2 o'clock. Judge Samuel P. McCoull was conducted to the chair and made a speech.

Acting Secretary of State Uhl May Receive a Promotion to a Cabinet Office. Don M. Dickinson is in Favor of the Promotion.

By Southern Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 5.—The name of Judge Moran, of Chicago, which has been added to the list of possibilities for the office of Attorney-General, seems to have this basis of possibility behind it.

Mr. J. W. Doane, of Chicago, a prominent banker, and vice-president of the Pullman Palace Car Company, has been in Washington several days, and is known to be a strong admirer of Mr. Moran. Mr. Doane was an intimate friend of Secretary Gresham, and accompanied the President and the Cabinet to Chicago on the Gresham funeral train. There have been some suggestions that Acting Secretary Uhl, of the State Department, with whom the President was brought into close relations during the illness of Mr. Gresham, and who took Mr. Gresham's place at the cabinet councils during the latter's illness, may receive promotion to a cabinet office. Mr. Uhl was a leading member of the Michigan bar before his selection as Assistant Secretary of State. He is a warm friend of Don M. Dickinson.

A Baseball Player's Very Unfortunate Home Run Hit.

It was on a baseball field in this town that the story we are writing originated a few days ago. The illustration gives a good idea of how the hit was made, but the fact of the matter is it does not half express the ludicrous, but painful scene.

The player who was struck was the catcher, just as the batsman swung his bat to strike for a home run.

But just such accidents are happening every day on the ball field, and it is not infrequent one hears of a broken nose, a dislocated jaw or something even worse as a result of the national game. Now, if every ball player in this state would keep posted by reading the newspapers, and whenever he goes on the field take a bottle of Quorol with him he would be saved much suffering, for Quorol is a quick cure for sprains, bruises, sores, cuts and wounds of every description. Druggists sell it at 50 cents a bottle.
